Todd Solondz:

Todd Solondz Julian Murphet, 2019-08-16 Films like Welcome to the Dollhouse and Happiness established Todd Solondz as independent cinema's premier satirist. Blending a trademark black humor into atmospheres of grueling bleakness, Solondz repeatedly takes moviegoers into a bland suburban junk space peopled by the damaged, the neglected, and the depraved. Julian Murphet appraises the career of the controversial if increasingly ignored indie film auteur. Through close readings and a discussion with the director, Murphet dissects how Solondz's themes and techniques serve stories laden with hot button topics like pedophilia, rape, and family, and systemic cruelty. Solondz's uncompromising return to the same motifs, stylistic choices, and characters reject any idea of aesthetic progression. Instead, he embraces an art of diminishing returns that satirizes the laws of valuation sustaining what we call cinema. It also reflects both Solondz's declining box office fortunes and the changing economics of independent film in an era of financial contraction. Reel Views 2 James Berardinelli, 2005 Thoroughly revised and updated for 2005. Includes a new chapter on the best special edition DVDs and a new chapter on finding hidden easter egg features. The Advocate, 2002-02-19 The Advocate is a lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, LGBT monthly newsmagazine. Established in 1967, it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States. Fifty Contemporary Film Directors Yvonne Tasker, 2010-10-04 Fifty Contemporary Film Directors examines the work of some of today's most popular and influential cinematic figures. It provides an accessible overview of each director's contribution to cinema, incorporating a discussion of their career, major works, and impact. Revised throughout and with twelve new entries, this second edition is an up-to-date introduction to some of the most prominent film makers of the present day. The directors, from differing backgrounds and working across a range of genres, include Martin Scorsese, Steven Spielberg, Sofia Coppola, Julie Dash, Shane Meadows, Michael Moore, Peter Jackson, Guillermo Del Toro, Tim Burton, Jackie Chan, Ang Lee, Pedro Almodóvar. With further reading and a filmography accompanying each entry, this comprehensive guide is indispensable to all those studying contemporary film and will appeal to anyone interested in the key individuals behind modern cinema's greatest achievements. In Search of Cinema Bert Cardullo, 2004 In Search of Cinema chronicles the vitality of international film art in the last two decades. At a time when the movie review has degenerated into mere publicity for Hollywood pictures and film scholarship has become entangled in its own pseudo-scientific discourse, Bert Cardullo reclaims the territory of a certain type of film critic somewhere between a reviewer-journalist and a scholar-theorist. With elegance, clarity, and rigour, he offers close readings of individual films to show how moviemakers use the resources of the medium to pursue complex, significant human goals. The essays collected here reflect the spectacular rise of Iranian cinema in recent years, as well as the strong contributions of contemporary filmmakers from countries such as Belgium, Canada, China, Israel, Lebanon, Scotland, and Spain. But In Search of Cinema does not neglect the best recent films from major film-producing nations like the United States, France, and Italy, and includes retrospective pieces on the careers of Ingmar Bergman and Woody Allen, as well as several essays on the interrelationship between film form or film genres and drama and the novel the two forms from which the cinema continues to draw a wealth of its material

The Best Film You've Never Seen Robert K. Elder, 2013 Thirty five directors reveal which overlooked or critically savaged films they believe deserve a larger audience while offering advice on how to watch each film

Transgressive Bodies Niall Richardson, 2016-02-17 In recent years the body has become one of the most popular areas of study in the arts social sciences and humanities Transgressive Bodies offers an examination of a variety of non normative bodies and how they are represented in film media and popular culture Examining the non normative body in a cultural studies context this book reconsiders the concept of the transgressive body establishing its status as a culturally mutable term arguing that popular cultural representations create the transgressive or freak body and then proceed to either contain its threat or exploit it Through studies of extreme bodybuilding obesity disability and transsexed bodies it examines the implications of such transgressive bodies for gender politics and sexuality Transgressive Bodies engages with contemporary cultural debates always relating these to concrete studies of media and cultural representations This book will therefore appeal to scholars across a range of disciplines including media and film studies cultural studies gender studies sociology sports studies and cultural theory

Down and Dirty Pictures Peter Biskind, 2013-01-08 In this dishy superbly reported Entertainment Weekly New York Times bestseller Peter Biskind chronicles the rise of independent filmmakers who reinvented Hollywood most notably Sundance founder Robert Redford and Harvey Weinstein who with his brother Bob made Miramax Films an indie powerhouse As he did in his acclaimed Easy Riders Raging Bulls Peter Biskind takes on the movie industry of the 1990s and again gets the story The New York Times Biskind charts in fascinating detail the meteoric rise of the controversial Harvey Weinstein often described as the last mogul who created an Oscar factory that became the envy of the studios while leaving a trail of carnage in his wake He follows Sundance as it grew from a regional film festival to the premier showcase of independent film succeeding almost despite the mercurial Redford whose visionary plans were nearly thwarted by his own quixotic personality Likewise the directors who emerged from the independent movement such as Quentin Tarantino Steven Soderbergh and David O Russell are now among the best known directors in Hollywood Not to mention the actors who emerged with them like Matt Damon Ben Affleck Ethan Hawke and Uma Thurman Candid controversial and sensationally entertaining Los Angeles Times Down and Dirty Pictures is a must read for anyone interested in the film world

Between Dream Houses and "God's Own Junkyard": Architecture and the Built Environment in American Suburban Fiction Stefanie Strebel, 2021-06-28 The American suburb is a space dominated by architectural mass production sprawl as well as a monotonous aesthetic eclecticism and many critics argue that it has developed from a postwar utopia into a disorienting environment with which it is difficult to identify The typical suburb has come to display characteristics of an atopia that is a space without borders or even a non place a generic space of transience Dealing with the representation of architecture and the built environment in suburban literature and film from the 1920s until present this study demonstrates that in its fictional representations too suburbia has largely turned into a place of non architecture A lack of architectural ethos and an abundance of Junkspace define suburban narratives causing an increasing sense of disorientation and entropy in fictional characters     Movies of the '90s Riley Webster,2023-11-01 The 1990s was an amazing decade for movies witnessing the release of dozens of incredible films including The Matrix The Shawshank Redemption Pulp Fiction Goodfellas Fargo Jurassic Park and so many more Despite this embarrassment of riches author Riley Webster believes this decade has never received as much praise or as many kudos as it deserves until now Whether you re a serious cinephile a casual viewer or merely seeking a heavy dose of 1990s nostalgia this is the book for you
