Benedict XVI's manifold contributions to Catholic-Protestant theological reflection. The collection opens with an introduction comparing Ratzinger's approach to ecumenism to that of Karl Rahner. Rahner argues that the structural uniting of Protestants and Catholics should take place now without worrying about doctrinal differences. In contrast, Ratzinger argues that unity in Christ requires probing the doctrinal differences and seeking a deeper understanding of the reasoning of each side on the grounds that the truth of the Gospel that each side desires to preserve will ultimately be the basis for the only kind of Christian ecclesial unity worth having, namely a unity of the basis of the truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Detailed essays follow, treating a number of loci including papal primacy, ecumenical principles, liturgy, evangelization, Mariology, Christ's birth and the celebration of Christmas, public theology, Christocentrism, Martin Luther, charity, conscience, missiology, justification, the reception of Ratzinger, Benedict in Radical Orthodoxy, and Scripture and Tradition. These essays run the full gamut of Ratzinger, Benedict's major themes and preoccupations. Ten of the essays are by Catholic scholars and seven by Protestant scholars. Contributors include many of the world's leading Ratzinger experts, and the volume opens with an essay by Bishop Rudolf Voderholzer, Director of the Pope Benedict XVI Institute in Regensburg, Germany.

The Bible and Catholic Ressourcement: Essays on Scripture and Theology William M. Wright IV, 2019-09-12 The essays in this collection all concern the interpretation of Scripture in relation to the Catholic Ressourcement, a theological renewal movement that began in the early twentieth century. The Ressourcement movement centered on a return to the sources such as Scripture, the Church Fathers, and liturgy. The point of such a return was to discover in these sources the wisdom, truth, and spiritual insight which could speak meaningfully to contemporary challenges. William M. Wright first focuses on three major Ressourcement figures: Henri de Lubac, Yves Congar, and Joseph Ratzinger, and considers aspects of their theological thinking about Scripture or how Scripture is employed as a theological resource. Next, Wright examines Benedict XVI's Jesus of Nazareth books, showing how they put into practice for a general readership many of the theological insights characteristic of the Ressourcement movement Last Wright considers how the theological insights of the Ressourcement movement can be used to as a resource for the interpretation of Scripture He uses characteristic Ressourcement concerns such as the relationship between the testaments the theology of history and liturgy to help illumine the biblical text Wright not only provides substantive examination of the place of the Bible in this important theological movement but also shows how the insights of the Ressourcement can be helpful for the interpretation of Scripture today
