prolific career Introducing Mad Scientists Betty Burnett,2006-08-15 Presents the plots of several films dealing with scientists whose experiments have gotten out of control introduces several well known literary or historical mad scientists and describes how the special effects were created for some of them Belief in God T. J. Mawson,2005 Belief in God answers two questions what if anything is it that Jews Christians and Muslims are agreeing about when they join in claiming that there is a God and what if any prospects are there for rationally defending or attacking this claim In the context of a sustained argument for particular answers to these questions Tim Mawson tackles many of the most prominent topics in the philosophy of religion He argues that those who believe that there is a God are best interpreted as believing that there is a being who is essentially personal transcendent immanent omnipotent omniscient eternal perfectly free perfectly good and necessary and non essentially creator of the world and value revealer of Himself and offerer of everlasting life Having explored the meaning and consistency of this conception of God in the first half of the book Mawson goes on to consider whether or not belief or the absence of belief in such a God might be the sort of thing that does not rationally require argument and if not what the criteria for a good argument for or against such a God s existence might be BOOK JACKET

Boys' Life ,1996-11 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting The New York Times Essential Library: Children's Movies Peter M. Nichols,2003-11-06 An indispensable guide for parents from a leading expert on children s film For years Peter M Nichols has been offering vital advice and information for parents about current movies in his regular Taking the Children column But parents need the same kind of guidance when renting or buying videos and DVDs for their family They may know that movies such as Toy Story and Chicken Run are good choices for their children but Nichols helps parents go beyond the obvious choices to more unconventional movies like The African Queen and Some Like It Hot From the classics of animation to a host of great comedies and dramas Nichols provides a knowing and illuminating guide to one hundred great cinematic works Each brief original essay not only explains why the children will enjoy the film but also allows Nichols to offer timely bits of film history and to discuss certain films in a larger cultural context Nichols s knowledge and understanding of films is broad and deep and many of his choices especially of films that we might not have thought of as children s films will surprise and delight readers The Dinosaur Filmography Mark F. Berry,2015-08-31 From classics like King Kong to beloved B movies like The Beast from 20 000 Fathoms to blockbusters like Jurassic Park it s easy to see that filmmakers and audiences alike love to see dinosaurs on the screen This comprehensive filmography arranged alphabetically by title contains entries that include basic facts year of release country of origin studio and running time followed by a concise plot summary the author s critical commentary information on the production and the people behind it and secrets of the often ingenious special effects Three useful appendices feature films with minor dinosaur content planned but unfinished dinosaur movies and the quasi dinosaurs of Toho Studios To be included a movie must depict one or more representations of a prehistoric reptile Inaccurate portrayals are included as long as the intent is to represent a real or fictional dinosaur Not eligible are films featuring prehistoric mammals prehistoric humans or humanoids and beasts of mythology unless of course the movie also has a dinosaur
