La pelea por el infierno Enrique Zuñiga, 2022-09-15 Con su doble

vena de criminólogo y reportero Enrique Ziga analiza en este libro el peso específico que las prisiones tienen en el gran sistema criminal de México y desvela la guerra oculta y el botín inmenso que se disputa en cada uno de estos lugares. Cada cárcel en México es un infierno particular. Algunas prisiones tienen salas de tortura, otras poseen cuartos de ahogamiento, algunas más son emporios criminales bien aceitados y otras han sido sitios de exterminio; ciertos reclusorios han devenido cuarteles para reclutar masivamente carne de cañón y otros, en cambio, son fortalezas perfectas para que los capos pacten el rumbo del crimen y de grandes regiones del país. En algunas penitenciarías se promueve la industria de la extorsión; en otras, la violación a escala industrial. Enrique Ziga es una de las pocas personas que han atestiguado todos estos fenómenos. Durante lustros y lustros pudo entrar a una inmensa cantidad de cárceles debido a su trabajo de visitador penitenciario. De Chihuahua a Acapulco, de Topo Chico a Tamaulipas, del Estado de México a Cadereyta, logró entrar a rincones a los que ninguna autoridad podría acercarse y conseguir testimonios inaccesibles a cualquier juez. Con su doble vena de criminólogo y reportero, Enrique Ziga analiza en este libro el peso específico que las prisiones tienen en el gran sistema criminal de México y desvela la guerra oculta y el botín inmenso que se disputa en cada uno de estos lugares.

Saúde Mental e Trabalho no Serviço Público Wanderley Codo, Analía Soria Batista, Remígio Todeschini, Lúcia Helena Soratto, Herval Pina Ribeiro, 2020-12-18. Aberte os cintos, você vai entrar em uma aventura inesperada, cheia das belas paisagens e também de turbulências. O trabalho do servidor público. Este suposto conhecido quando olhado mais de perto, se revela surpreendente e revela, pari passu, nossa ignorância sobre ele. Para o servidor público, com algumas exceções, falar de saúde no trabalho, falar de saúde mental no trabalho. O trabalhador adocece com o que usa e se desgasta no trabalho. Um metalúrgico do século passado utilizava as mãos e adoecia com elas; o servidor público de hoje não corre o risco de ferimentos físicos na frente de um computador ou no atendimento de pessoas em busca de ajuda, não corre e nas emoções que a alegria e o sofrimento do trabalho comparecem aqui na saúde mental que devemos buscar caminhos para um trabalho e um trabalhador mais feliz e, ou menos sofrido, sofrer. Zelar pela qualidade, melhorar a prestação do serviço público, não se esgota, mas também não prescindir do olhar arguto sobre a saúde do trabalhador. Este livro traz descobertas sobre a saúde mental daqueles que são responsáveis pela nossa segurança, nossa educação e nossa saúde, lançando luz sobre os males com os quais convivemos e que ainda permanecem em silêncio, a felicidade e a dor do trabalho de quem serve, população, o servidor público. Decolonizing Medicine Gabriela Elisa Morales, 2025-05-06 Decolonizing Medicine examines Bolivian state-led efforts to decolonize health services during the administration of Evo Morales Bolivia's first Indigenous president Governing from 2006 to 2019 the Morales administration undertook sweeping reforms vowing to reverse intertwined colonial and capitalist systems of oppression and restore Indigenous good living Predating more recent calls from global health practitioners to decolonize global health Bolivian state projects included a range of initiatives such as integrating Indigenous traditional medical practitioners into clinical care and encouraging cultural sensitivity among healthcare providers And yet despite layered institutional investments many Indigenous patients continued to describe their local hospital as a place donde no hay atenci n where there is no care Through fine grained ethnography of health policymaking and implementation Gabriela Elisa Morales tracks how Bolivian biomedical and public health institutions fell short of the far reaching transformations proposed by decolonial activists and theorists At the same time she foregrounds how Indigenous patients and healers challenged the terms of caregiving and demanded that state and medical institutions fulfill their obligations to Indigenous flourishing In tracing these dynamics Morales articulates the multiplicity of ways that care practice becomes a locus of political foreclosure as well as radical transformation with crucial insights for broader projects of decolonization and Indigenous rights
