Xavier Zubiri, a philosophy of reality, 2013      Love that Produces Hope Kevin F. Burke, Robert Anthony Lassalle-Klein, 2006 Father Ignacio Ellacuría SJ president of the University of Central America leading Latin American philosopher and liberation theologian was assassinated with five Jesuit companions and two women on November 16 1989 Love That Produces Hope bring together leading authorities on key aspects of Ellacuría's thought His biography and writings embody late twentieth century transformations and tensions that reshaped the life of the Catholic Church among the crucified peoples of Central America      The Ground Beneath the Cross Kevin F. Burke, 2000-02-04 This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the thought of Ignacio Ellacuría the Jesuit philosopher theologian martyred for his work on behalf of Latin America's oppressed peoples While serving as president of the Jesuit run University of Central America in the midst of El Salvador's brutal civil war Ellacuría was also a prolific writer His advocacy on behalf of the country's persecuted majority provoked the enmity of the Salvadoran political establishment On November 16 1989 members of the Salvadoran military entered the university's campus and murdered Ellacuría along with five other Jesuit priests and two women Kevin F. Burke SJ shows why Ellacuría is significant not only as a martyr but also as a theologian Ellacuría effectively integrated philosophy history anthropology and sociopolitical analysis into his theological reflections on salvation spirituality and the church to create an original contribution to liberation theology Ellacuría's writings directly address one of the most vexing issues in theology today can theologians account for the demands arising from both the particularity of their various social historical situations and also the universal claims of Christian revelation Burke explains how Ellacuría bases theology in a philosophy of historical reality the ground beneath the cross and interprets the suffering of the crucified peoples in the light of Jesus' crucifixion Ellacuría thus inserts the theological realities of salvation and transcendence squarely within the course of human events and he connects these to the Christian mandate to take the crucified peoples down from their crosses Placing Ellacuría's thought in the context of historical trends within the Roman Catholic Church particularly Vatican II and the rise of liberation theology in Latin America Burke argues that Ellacuría makes a distinctive contribution to contemporary Catholic theology      Ontology of Consciousness Helmut Wautischer, 2008-04-11 Scholars from many different disciplines examine consciousness through the lens of intellectual approaches and cultures ranging from cosmology research and cell biophysics laboratories to pre-Columbian Mesoamerica and Tibetan Tantric Buddhism in a volume that extends consciousness studies beyond the limits of current neuroscience research The hard problem of today's consciousness studies is subjective experience understanding why some brain processing is accompanied by an experienced inner life Recent scientific advances offer insights for understanding the physiological and chemical phenomenology of consciousness But by leaving aside the internal experiential nature of consciousness in favor of mapping neural activity such science leaves many questions unanswered In Ontology of Consciousness scholars from a range of disciplines from neurophysiology to parapsychology from mathematics to anthropology and indigenous non Western modes of thought go beyond these limits of current neuroscience research to explore insights offered by other intellectual approaches to consciousness These scholars focus their attention on such philosophical approaches to consciousness as Tibetan Tantric Buddhism North American Indian insights pre Columbian Mesoamerican civilization and the Byzantine Empire Some draw on artifacts and ethnographic data to make their point Others translate cultural concepts of consciousness into modern scientific language using models and mathematical mappings Many consider individual experiences of sentience and existence as seen in African communalism Hindi psychology Zen Buddhism Indian vibhuti phenomena existentialism philosophical realism and modern psychiatry Some reveal current views and conundrums in neurobiology to comprehend sentient intellection Contributors Karim Akerma Matthijs Cornelissen Antoine Courban Mario Crocco Christian de Quincey Thomas B Fowler Erlendur Haraldsson David J Hufford Pavel B Ivanov Heinz Kimmerle Stanley Krippner Armand J Labb James Maffie Hubert Markl Graham Parkes Michael Polemis E Richard Sorenson Mircea Steriade Thomas Szasz Mariela Szirko Robert A F Thurman Edith L B Turner Julia Watkin Helmut Wautischer A Grammar of Justice J.
